NASHVILLE, October 15 .- The Chickasaw Guards arrived here yesterday morning from Louisville, and were met at the depot by the Rock City Guards and escorted to their armory, where they were welcomed by Mayor Kercheval. They drilled at the Grand operahouse last night and at matinee to-day to large andiences.

Nashville American of Wednesday: "At Nashville American of Wednesday: "At nine o'clock yesterday morning the Chickasaw Guards, of Memphis, arrived in the city from Louisville. They were met at the depot by an escort from the Rock City Guards, at least three hundred residents of Nashville, and a large number of refugees from Memphis spending the summer here. The companies formed and marched up Market street to the public square and around the seat and to the public square, and around the east and southern sides of the square to the armory of the Rock City Guards in the Burns block. On the route they were run into by a drove of cattle, but by retreating to the sidewalks voided being thrown into confusion. At the armory both companies stacked arms, and after having been introduced to Captain Carnes, of the Chickasaw Guarda, Mayor Ker-cheval made the following address of welcome:

Captain Carnes and Members of the Chickasaw Guards: GENTLEMEN.—In the name of the Rock City Guards and municipal government of our city, I extend to you and your gallant company, the Chickasaw Guards, a most cordial welcome. As Tennesseans, we rejoice at the success which has crowned your efforts and the palms you have carried away at St. Louis, Columbus, and elsewhere. You have been compilmented on your profelency by the best military talent in the land, including General Sherman, and of this you may well be proud. We have two companies here of whose proficiency we boast much, and I hope they will go on in the practice of the manual of arms until they can compete with the best military organizations in the country. You are Tennesseans, and as Tennesseans we are proud of you. Gentlemen of the Chickasaw Guards, I again, in behalf of the whole city, most cordially welcome you to Nashville.

Captain Carnes said, in response:

Captain Carnes said, in response: was spent by the members of the company in looking over the city and visiting friends. Between three and four hundred persons assembled at the operahouse, last evening, to witness an exhibition-drill by the Chickasaws. The curtain rose, showing the company in a semicircle, and presenting a tableau that evoked an emphatic demonstration of applause. In this position the comhe marvelous precision for which they are so amous-each gentleman seeming to be a part of an automatic machine, the spring of which was only to be touched in order to pro-duce an immediate and simultaneous movement. For the first time, perhaps, in the history of the operahouse true soldiers appeared upon its stage. The manual of arms seemed to be as perfect as it could have been made, and such was the exactness of every motion that plaudits followed plaudits. The evolutions of the company were as remarkable as their skill in the manual of arms, and formed a continuous succession of tableaux, and was fully worthy of the enthusiasm created. Repeated calls having been made for the bayonet drill, the company went through that exercise in magnificent style." MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, August 1, 1879. NEW YORK, August 1, 1879.

In order to avoid danger from the malady now existing in the Mississippi Valley, we have deemed it better for both our customers and ourselves to temporarily close our Memphis house, and solicit jour orders for Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Men's Furnishings, etc., from our office in New York. The advantages which this city can furnish in transportation facilities, in case Louisville, Cincinnati and St. Louis should also become (not improbable) isolated by rigid quarantines, induces us to adopt this policy, in order to furnish our friends with a more reliable assurance for obtaining their supplies. We will endeavor to faithfully all any orders with which you may intrust us. Please address, with specific snipping directions.

OF BLACKBERRY ROOT. It is almost needless to say that this preparation, for an effectual and certain cure for Dysentery, Acute and Chronic Diarrhea, Flux, and all kindred diseases, far excels any other known remedy. It not only cures the disease, but strengthens the intestinal organs and invigorates the entire system. We do not claim it to cure every thing, but we guarantee it to cure the diseases we name above. For children it has no equal, being both mild and safe in its effects; and for females it is the best strengthener and appetizer known.
